

Campaigns & activist Volunteer

Do you want to campaign for a just world and inspire others to do the same?

As a campaigns & activist volunteer you will help challenge the root causes of global injustice, and help bring about positive change through your campaigning!

We are looking for people to join our network of committed and passionate campaigns & activist volunteers who:

- Are motivated to campaign on climate change and other global justice issues
- Have a strong interest in global justice and human rights issues
- Have excellent communication skills and fluency in English
- Possess excellent interpersonal skills
- Are competent and confident using IT and social media
- Share the vision and ethos of Trócaire
- Are committed and flexible in their role as volunteers

As a Trócaire campaigns volunteer, you will have the opportunity to:

- Be an active citizen and make a difference campaigning for a just world
 - Campaign at popular events and music festivals
 - Meet and influence decision makers on global justice issues
 - Learn about international development and the human rights sector
 - Learn more about the work of Trócaire around the world
 - Meet with likeminded people
- Induction and training will be provided by Trócaire and must be attended by all volunteers
- Relevant expenses incurred in carrying out your volunteer role with Trócaire will be covered
- This volunteer role is open to applicants aged 18 years and over

Application process

- Download and complete an application form here and return it to volunteering@trocaire.org
- Face to face volunteer interviews will take place in Dublin during October
- Volunteer Induction will take place in Dublin on October 21st and in Cork on October 14th
- As part of our recruitment process, two references will also be required.
- In line with our Safeguarding Children Policy, you will be asked to sign some policies and declarations and you may also be asked to complete a Garda Vetting process/PSNI check.

For queries relating to this role, please contact volunteering@trocaire.org.