

EXPLORING HUMAN RIGHTS

“To deny people their human rights is to challenge their very humanity.”

Nelson Mandela

Purpose

To support students to understand the origins and importance of human rights, a key aspect of global justice.

Materials

- Worksheet 1: Teacher Bingo Sheet
- Worksheet 2: Bingo Cards
- Worksheet 3: Human Rights Cards
- Global Goals Photo Pack
- Exploring Justice video

Activity 1: Human Rights Bingo

Step 1

Split the students into pairs. Worksheet 2: Bingo Cards includes ten different bingo cards. Give each pair one bingo card. Using Worksheet 1: Teacher Bingo Sheet and a random number generator read the description of each right as its number is chosen. The students must identify which right is being described and mark it off their bingo card (if applicable). Keep going until someone shouts bingo because all of the rights on their sheet have been read out.

Optional Step 2

Go to the following link for the Story of Human Rights video. This video is from the USA and brings viewers on a journey through the history of human rights.

What are human rights?

Activity 2: Human Rights and the Sustainable Development Goals

Step 1

Begin by showing the introduction to the SDGs from The World's Largest Lesson, located here.

Step 2

Split the class up into groups of three or four. Give each group a copy of Worksheet 3: Human Rights Cards. Work through the following questions, which will encourage a deeper analysis of the rights. After each question, ask some students for feedback and to justify their choices.

- Which of the rights do you find most important as a teenager?
- Which of the rights seem more important to people over fifty?

- Which rights seem more important to women?
- Which rights seem more important to children under five years old?
- Which rights seem more important to people living in poverty?
- Where in Ireland can you see examples of rights being ignored?
- Where in the world do you see rights being ignored?

Explain to the students that while the rights are universal, which means applicable to every human being on the planet, some become more important at different stages of our lives.

These rights are adapted from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights from the United Nations. Ask the students if they can think of any other documents or sources where human rights have been identified or listed. Refer to the Story of Human Rights video.

Step 3

targets on the front, and the photo on the back to help them identify links.

Optional steps depending on group:

Option 1

Using Trócaire's SDG wheel, ask the students to shout out a right that is linked to the SDG chosen on each spin by the wheel.

Option 2

Each young person gets a rights card and must choose which SDG to link it to, giving an explanation as to why they think it links.

Activity 3

Watch the Exploring Justice video, then ask the students to identify what rights are being denied in each of the three countries featured. Collate any suggestions from the students on the board under the following headings.

Somalia

Guatemala

Palestine

Worksheet 3: Human Rights Cards

1. We Are All Born Free and Equal

We are all born free. We all have our own thoughts and ideas. We should all be treated in the same way.

2. Don't Discriminate

These rights belong to everybody, whatever our differences.

3. The Right to Life

We all have the right to life, and to live in freedom and safety.

4. No Slavery

Nobody has any right to make us a slave. We cannot make anyone our slave.

5. No Torture

Nobody has any right to hurt us or to torture us.

6. You Have Rights No Matter Where You Go

I am a person just like you!

7. We're All Equal Before the Law

The law is the same for everyone. It must treat us all fairly.

8. Your Human Rights Are Protected by Law

We can all ask for the law to help us when we are not treated fairly.

9. No Unfair Detainment

Nobody has the right to put us in prison without good reason and keep us there, or to send us away from our country.

10. The Right to Trial

If we are put on trial, this should be in public. The people who try us should not let anyone tell them what to do.

11. We're Always Innocent Until Proven Guilty

Nobody should be blamed for doing something until it is proven. When people say we did a bad thing we have the right to show it is not true.

12. The Right to Privacy

Nobody should try to harm our good name. Nobody has the right to come into our home, open our letters, or bother us or our family without a good reason.

13. Freedom to Move

We all have the right to go where we want in our own country and to travel as we wish.

14. The Right to Seek a Safe Place to Live

If we are frightened of being badly treated in our own country, we all have the right to run away to another country to be safe.

15. Right to a Nationality

We all have the right to belong to a country.

16. Marriage and Family

Every grown-up has the right to marry and have a family if they want to. Men and women have the same rights when they are married, and when they are separated.

Worksheet 3: Human Rights Cards

17. The Right to Your Own Things

Everyone has the right to own things or share them. Nobody should take our things from us without a good reason.

18. Freedom of Thought

We all have the right to believe in what we want to believe, to have a religion, or to change it if we want.

19. Freedom of Expression

We all have the right to make up our own minds, to think what we like, to say what we think, and to share our ideas with other people.

20. The Right to Public Assembly

We all have the right to meet our friends and to work together in peace to defend our rights. Nobody can make us join a group if we don't want to.

21. The Right to Democracy

We all have the right to take part in the government of our country. Every grown-up should be allowed to choose their own leaders.

22. Social Security

We all have the right to affordable housing, medicine, education, and childcare, enough money to live on and medical help if we are ill or old.

23. Workers' Rights

Every grown-up has the right to do a job, to a fair wage for their work, and to join a trade union.

24. The Right to Play

We all have the right to rest from work and to relax.

25. Food and Shelter for All

We all have the right to a good life. Mothers and children, people who are old, unemployed or disabled, and all people have the right to be cared for.

26. The Right to Education

Education is a right. Primary school should be free. We should learn about the United Nations and how to get on with others. Our parents can choose what we learn.

27. Copyright

Copyright is a special law that protects one's own artistic creations and writings; others cannot make copies without permission. We all have the right to our own way of life and to enjoy the good things that art, science and learning bring.

28. A Fair and Free World

There must be proper order so we can all enjoy rights and freedoms in our own country and all over the world.

29. Responsibility

We have a duty to other people, and we should protect their rights and freedoms.

30. No One Can Take Away Your Human Rights
